INTRODUCTION TO CUB SCOUT GROWTH

Cub Scout membership growth comes about in three ways:

1. Retain youth and leaders who are now registered for a longer period of time.
2. Recruit new youth and adults into existing packs.
3. Organize new and reorganize dropped Cub Scout packs.

The Cub Scout roundup provides opportunities for growth in youth retention and recruitment and in new unit organization.

- June – August Select fall leadership for existing dens and new dens to be organized.
- On or Before September 18th Conduct a Pack School Night for Scouting for youth and adults.
- September - November All new leaders participate in Basic Leader Training
- November-December Re-registration/Rechartering the maximum number of youth in each pack.
- December-February Prepare 5th grade Webelos to graduate into a Boy Scout troop.
- March-May Conduct spring Cub Scout recruitment.

     1. Explain family/parent responsibilities.
   - D. Explain how Cub Scouting is organized.
     1. Dens: Lion, Tiger, Wolf, Bear, and Webelos
   - E. Review joining requirements
   - F. Explain the advancement program.
     1. Discuss the advancement program, beginning with Bobcat requirements and ending with graduation into a troop. Explain this will be reviewed in more detail at the den parents’ meeting.
G. Program groups

At this point in the meeting, the kids can rejoin the group. Have families participate in a song or a game. Then divide families into five groups – one each for Lion Cub-age youth, Tiger Cub-age youth, Wolf and Bear Cub-age youth, and Webelos Scout-age youth.

Previously selected den leaders are furnished with program-appropriate materials and literature. During this period, den leaders collect the youth applications and fees from each family and make a list of Scouts in the den. At this time, the den leader and families should decide on a suitable den meeting day and set a date for the first den adults’ meeting.

1. Lion Cub Group
   - The Lion Cub Den Leader meets with Scouts and their adult partners to explain den organization and the adult partner’s role in the Lion Cub Program.

2. Tiger Cub Group
   - The Tiger Cub Den Leader meets with Scouts and their adult partners to explain den organization and the adult partner’s role in the Tiger Cub Program.

3. Cub Scout Group
   - Families sit together by grade level. The Wolf Cub Scout Den Leader meets with the second-grade Scouts and their families to explain the Wolf Badge, den organization, and the family’s role in the Cub Scout Program. The Bear Cub Scout Den Leader does the same for families of third-grade Scouts.

4. Webelos Scout Group
   - The Webelos Den Leadership meets with families to review the Webelos Badge and Arrow of Light Award requirements, den organization, and how families fit into the program.

Note: Create a Boy Scout group in case any boys in the sixth grade or above attend. Troop organizers will take over this group, and they will meet with the troop and unit leaders present.

These group meetings are short and do not take the place of the den adults’ meeting or parents’ meetings, which will be held at another time with the den leaders.

H. Registration – 5 minutes

1. Review the purpose of registration and answer any questions.
2. Collect all applications and fees. Den leaders may have already collected the youth applications and fees during the group programs.

I. Closing – 5 minutes

1. Announce the Council scheduled training opportunities and Pack meetings:
   - Examples: Roundtable, Fast Start, Basic Leader Training
   - Pack Adult’s Meeting
2. Thank everyone for coming
3. Close with an inspirational thought, emphasizing the importance of family involvement.

4. After the Meeting

A. Enjoy fellowship and refreshments.
B. Verify money and registration applications.
C. Calculate and prorate fees if necessary.
D. Keep the pack copy of the youth applications; turn in other copies and fees to the council service center as soon as possible.
E. Forward adult applications and fees to the council service center as soon as they have been approved by the chartered organization, keeping the pack copy.
F. Check to make sure the room is clean and returned to its original order.
TABLE CHIEF RESPONSIBILITIES:

When the group splits into the different age groups, you are the representative for the Pack. Your responsibilities include:

- Providing an overview of the types of activities that Den will do over the year. Be sure to share the current Pack schedule.
- Answer questions about the Scouting program
- Assist in collecting the registrations and payment for new Scouts and Scouters
- Help the group decide on a suitable den meeting day/time.
Above is a sample layout of a typical roundup event setting. Be sure all tables are clearly marked by assigned grade and/or neighborhood. As parents and kids enter, ask them to sign the attendance roster, give them application forms, and direct them to the appropriate table.

Doing this simple task at the beginning will save a tremendous amount of time and organization later. Parents and youth already sitting in “den areas” will make the registration process go smoothly.

Use tri-fold boards: one for each Cub Scout level (including adults). Design a well laid out, professional presentation, with books and fliers at each table. This type of setup provides an eye-catching display.

A mini campsite setup in the entry area serves as a great visual for the Cub Scout outdoor programs.
It is important that you log the calls you receive from prospective Cub Scouts, Webelos Scouts, or their parents. Some families may not be able to come to your recruitment night, but may want to be Cub Scouts, or Webelos Scouts. Share with them when your next meeting is, but also ask for their phone number and name so you can give them a reminder call, text or email. In case that they don’t make the next meeting, you can make contact with them and see if they are still interested.

Please make sure you take the time to write down each kid’s name and number. Call them if they missed your meeting.

Talking to parents on the phone is a good opportunity to get to know who they are. Ask them if they were ever Scouts.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

1. Have all new members complete an application (youth and adults). (Should you run short of applications, get full address and phone number.)

2. Collect fees: As fees are paid, mark the amount on the application as “Registration Fee” and “Boys’ Life.” (This is your code that you received the money). Mark an “X” in Boys’ Life Box if the magazine is being purchased.

3. Review each form to ensure that it has been filled out completely and correctly. Please include birth date (youth and adult) and position code for adult leaders. Parents must sign youth application.

4. Have the unit leader (Cubmaster or their representative) sign each youth member application. Adult leader applications must be co-signed by a Chartering Organization Representative.

5. Units are to keep the copy of the applications labeled “Unit Copy”.

6. Units will also keep one copy of the Recruitment Phone Log / Attendance Sheet(s) to follow up on families who did not join.

7. Complete the “Report Form” provided. (Enclose one check in the amount for all fees. Do not staple money or checks to the forms. Then seal the envelope and return to the District Executive.)
SUGGESTED ACTIVITIES FOR YOUTH DURING RECRUITMENT NIGHT

As any parent knows, it is easier for adults to focus on the information being provided when their children aren’t fidgeting in their seats and asking lots of questions. Take the opportunity to split the youth (include all children present) from the adults. This is a chance for the kids to get really excited about all the fun they will have throughout the year, so try to weave in some Scouting mainstays to keep the focus on Scouting.

Below are some suggested activities:

Nature Path
Take the kids for a nature walk where the meeting is held. Provide Nature Passport or Scavenger Hunt materials to each kid.

Campfire Time
Take the kids to a separate area and teach them 3-4 songs, skits or cheers. When you come back together have the kids share their favorite.

Gaga Ball
Borrow the Council’s Gaga Pit to show the kids how much fun the game is!

Rocket Academy
Choose a rocket strategy (bottle, stomp, etc.) and make sure each kid gets to see a rocket shoot off.

Geocaching Activity
Set up some temporary caches and split into groups to find them. Be sure to have enough items for everyone to get an item (can be small items such as stickers, trading cards, etc)

Human Foosball (see photo below)
Create a mini human foosball area. Make sure youth take turns in the game.

Create several simple lever catapults. Have targets for Scouts to aim for.
PACK ADULT’S MEETING

Cubmasters and other pack leaders welcome ways to guide families so their kids will get the best Cub Scouting has to offer. Some packs hold an annual adult’s meeting – usually in the fall after a Join Scouting Night – to discuss responsibilities of families and the pack’s plans for the future. By this time, new families will have received the basic information, and this meeting can be devoted to meeting specific pack needs. This can be a meeting for adults only, or it can be incorporated as a part of the September or October pack meeting as a special adult part of the program.

The following agenda is for a pack adults’ meeting held in conjunction with a regular pack meeting. It can be tailored to fit your own pack needs. If there is a lot of business to be covered, it may be best to hold the adults’ meeting on a different night than the regular pack meeting.

The Cubmaster plans and conducts the adults’ meeting with the help of the pack trainer and pack committee. Other leaders may also be involved, and the unit commissioner and a chartered organization representative may be invited.

Suggested Agenda for Pack Adult’s Meeting

1. Before the Meeting
   A. Set up tables and chairs as needed
   B. Set up exhibits of den projects
   C. Have all materials and equipment ready

2. Gathering Period
   A. A welcoming committee greets the pack families as they arrive
   B. Register attendance and distribute name tags
   C. Hold a pre-opening activity or game

3. Opening – 5 minutes
   A. Lead the Pledge of Allegiance or another opening ceremony
   B. Welcome everyone and make introductions
   C. Lead a song

   If Scouts are in attendance, an assistant Cubmaster or other leader should take the Scouts into another room or outside for games and activities.

4. Body - (Adults’ portion of the meeting) – 30 minutes
   A. Briefly review family responsibilities
   B. Review your packs "Ideal Year of Scouting" - the themes, special activities, and projects decided on at the Pack Planning Conference
   C. Discuss leadership needs (See Page 11)
      - Discuss plans for selecting den and pack leaders, as needed.
      - Educate adults of leadership needs for special pack activities for the year
D. The Chartering Organization representative briefly discusses how the Chartering Organization helps the pack
E. Discuss other pack needs and ways families can help (budget, dues, uniforms, equipment, etc.)
F. Hold a question and answer session

Youth return for completion of Pack meeting – 30 minutes
The Scouts return and join the group. The remaining time is spent in regular pack meeting activities such as advancement ceremonies, games, and skits

5. Closing – 3-5 minutes
   ♦ Make announcements
   ♦ Conduct a closing ceremony or give a brief inspirational closing thought

6. After the meeting
   ♦ Enjoy refreshments and fellowship
