LIAM - FROM QUIET TO CONFIDENT

Liam’s Scouting journey began with a glitter-covered Pinewood Derby car that barely made it down the track. As a quiet, unsure Tiger Cub, each meeting helped him grow in skill and confidence. Over the years, he learned to pitch a tent, cook over a fire, and lead a flag ceremony—discovering teamwork, perseverance, and service along the way.

Now a Life Scout working toward Eagle, Liam mentors younger Scouts, leads hikes, and is planning a service project for a local animal shelter. He’s become a capable, compassionate leader—proof that Scouting builds character one experience at a time.

Stories like Liam’s are made possible by local donations to Friends of Scouting. The results take hard work, but they are lasting. Your support helps Scouts grow from curious Cub Scouts into confident young leaders ready to make a difference.
